

Tidewater Survey Bulletin

Issue 14 — printed from Chromium

The spring survey of the Tidewater estuary recorded forty-one wading bird species, the highest count since the programme began.

Volunteers from Saltmere and Pellingham walked the northern shore at low tide while a second team counted from boats.

Next season the bulletin will add a Welsh summary: Croeso i'r arolwg, and a German one: Willkommen zur Zählung.